NATURE RESERVE BID IN JEOPARDY

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

PLANS to create public access and extend an area of the Colyford Common nature reserve, at a site known as Black Hole Marsh, could be delayed because of the spending cuts introduced by the new coalition government.

The East Devon District Council (EDDC) Plan was approved at the beginning of May. Once it has been completed a public access area will be created at the site. The plan will also see extra burial plots being added to Seaton cemetery and the creation of a 20 space car park.

A spokeswoman for EDDC said work would soon begin at the nature reserve but some works will be delayed because of the spending cuts.

She said: "The planning application for access to Black Hole Marsh was approved in early May, giving the green light to the hedgebank and reedbed creation, two hides and the shared car park with the cemetery.

"Work is commencing very soon on the hedgebank to screen the lagoon and the reedbed in Stafford Marsh, which will restrict public access whilst the works go on. This will be followed by the construction of the hide and boardwalk in the centre of the lagoon, which is being funded under Natural England's Higher Level Stewardship scheme.

"Recent government spending cuts have left us looking for new sources of funding for some key works which will cause some delays. Our most crucial funding gap is the main path alongside the lagoon and we are looking at all other options to fund this quickly."

However, the district council spokeswoman confirmed that the project had received a grant from the Axe Vale and District Conservation Society. The grant will be used to extend a pond dipping platform.

She added: "On a more positive note, Axe Vale and District Conservation Society have offered us a grant to extend the pond dipping platform at the Borrow Pit, which will be much appreciated by our visiting schools and families."

Arrest after alleged theft of red diesel

A 23-year-old man from Colyton has been arrested for the alleged theft of red diesel from the Colyton Tannery.

The theft took place overnight between Friday, May 14th, and Saturday, May 15th.

Police arrested the man following a search of his home where they discovered a quantity of red diesel. The man was also arrested on suspicion of handling stolen goods and was questioned in relation to a theft from a car in Beer.

The man's vehicle was seized by customs and excise as it was being driven on red diesel, it has now been crushed. He also received a £30 fixed penalty fine for parking on the pavement.

The man has now been released on police bail pending further enquiries.

Steve Spearitt, of Seaton police, said: "Where evidence exists that individuals have committed any crime we will take positive action. The neighbourhood team will not rest until those who think it is acceptable to commit crime or cause anti-social behaviour are brought to justice."

Anyone with information about the offences committed by the Colyton man should contact Seaton police on 08452 777 444 or email seaton@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk.

Green group transport day

SUSTAINABLE Seaton will be holding a Green Transport Gathering on Sunday, June 6th.

The event will be held at the Underfleet and will run from 11am until 3pm and the organisers are hoping for a large turnout.

A range of green transport methods will be on show including a recumbent trike, tandems, electric cycles and motorcycles, electric cars and a folding bicycle. Seaton Scouts will be offering pedal powered smoothies.

Claire Wise, of Sustainable Seaton, said: "It has been a very enjoyable event in previous years and we are delighted to be holding it on the same day as Seaton Tramway celebrates its 40th birthday."

"Even St Johns Ambulance are entering into the spirit of it and bringing some of their kit on bicycles. We hope that even more people will be able to attend this year."

Dates given after magic cafe opening

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@indlenews.co.uk

THE frequency and dates for a new memory café in Seaton have been announced following a successful opener.

Magic Moments Memory Café is a joint idea of the Seaton branch of the Senior Council for Devon and community group Seaton's Voice, catering for dementia sufferers and their carers.

The café opened on May 19th, and it has since been decided to meet in Seaton Town Hall on a monthly basis for the time being.

Organisers hope to increase the frequency, but the next three cafés will be held on June 24th, July 22nd and August 19th.

The opener saw more than 20 dementia sufferers and their carers attend.

Volunteer helpers laid on a variety of activities throughout the afternoon, including table games, memory cards and colouring books.

Tea and coffee, cakes, scones and biscuits were available — and a community psychiatric nurse was in attendance, providing advice, support and informal counselling.

Bob Buskin, of the Senior Council, said: "Some years ago I was involved with three people who had dementia, who have since died, but I've remained friendly with their partners.

"Back then it was so difficult to get assistance for carers, and I've always wanted to do something.

"We believe that memory cafés are so worthwhile, and when Carol Manley of Seaton's Voice agreed that the group should take over the running of the café as one of its challenges for the town, it made it all possible.

"We're there as a partner organisation lending support."

Mrs Manley said: "It's marvellous to watch the memories of a dementia sufferer perhaps being triggered by a memory card.

"The other thing is that the benefits for a carer of even just a monthly café can last for some time.

"Three carers got more than 20 to 30 minutes with the psychiatric nurse, and one of them had previously had no support at all and had been at breaking point.

"We linked one of the ladies with the deputy manager from Doveridge Care Home so they could talk about organising a day's respite.

"One of the sufferers said he had tasted the best scones ever, and another carer got to play a simple game with his mum. What a way to spend your day."

For more information, contact Carol on 07779 729684 or email seatonvoice@yahoo.co.uk.

Help to take seaside Trip

HONITON-BASED Trip Community Transport Association is on the lookout for drivers who would be able to cover the Lyme Regis area.

Trip has been based in Honiton since 1997. It offers community transport services throughout east Devon, Lyme Regis and Exeter.

Neil Hurlock, of TRIP, said: "We are currently desperate for new drivers for the Lyme Regis Voluntary Car Service. We have recently had to turn away a few people who had requested transport to medical appointments."

"We have lost five drivers over the past few months, three through health problems and two due to other commitments."

Mr Hurlock added: "The time commitment is not great, people don't have to commit to a certain number of hours or regular days per week. Whether they can spare two hours or two days, it doesn't matter."

"There is some paperwork that needs to be completed before someone can start to drive for us and expenses are reimbursed, including mileage. If anyone would like more information feel free to contact us."

For more information about the service and becoming a volunteer driver visit the Trip shop in New Street, contact 01404 46529 or log on to www.tripcta.org.

East Devon town gets a mention on French soil

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@hindlenews.co.uk

A FRENCH square is to be named after Axminster.

A delegation from Axminster Twinning Association will travel to Normandy and twin town Douvres la Délivrande on Thursday, June 3rd to attend the historic moment.

Twining association chair Caroline Hillyard said: "It feels like a great honour."

"The fact that the French twinning committee and the town council of Douvres have chosen to name a spot after Axminster is an indication of the close relations they have with our town."

"It is also a symbol of the friendship, respect, and reciprocity that has developed between us."

The square is described as being more like a small garden with oak trees and benches and sits just behind the main shopping street in Douvres.

It is situated next to a newly-built apartment complex that was named last year after Douvres' German twin town, Oerlenbach.

The Axminster contingent's luggage will include local art.

Caroline explained that the twinning association in Axminster has commissioned an artwork to stand in the garden the square.

It has been created by local sculptress Greta Berlin and consists of three large birds in galvanised steel.

Greta described her creation by saying: "Because of the way they are installed they turn in the wind and because of being galvanised they shine in the moonlight."

Hence the name she has given to them, Moon Birds. Greta is very proud that her work has been commissioned as a gift to France from Axminster and is only sorry that she cannot be there to see them unveiled as the dates clash with Dorset Arts Week.

Axminster Twinning Association

◆ A MOON Bird, designed by Greta Berlin, flies across to France

has secured a grant towards the cost of the sculptures from Devon County Council's Locality Budget.

Axminster county councillor Andrew Moulding said: "The grant assists everyone to continue working at the good relationship that has developed between the two towns."

Caroline concluded: "We are raising Axminster's profile abroad and our aim is to promote international relations, and also friendship, through cultural exchange."

"To make this possible we have to work hard at fundraising throughout the year and so we are extremely grateful for the grant we have received. "Greta's sculptures will not only complement the square in Douvres, but will be a permanent commemoration of ten years of twinning."

Biodiversity information

THE building that used to house Seaton Tourist Information Centre will not be empty this summer after all.

East Devon District Council's Countryside Service is to stage a temporary exhibition for the International Year of Biodiversity, funded by an environmental education grant.

The exhibition is called Celebrating Seaton's Biodiversity and will highlight the wildlife surrounding the town and, it is hoped, inspire people to go and see for themselves the abundance of birds, animals, insects and plants.

It will open on Thursday, June 3rd and run until September, or until building works begin.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "The Countryside Service has worked with partner organisations and local volunteers to make the exhibition a reality and staff it throughout the summer."

"Twenty volunteers have come forward already, offering two hour shifts in pairs, allowing the exhibition to open at least three days a week."

"The volunteers will be on hand to talk to visitors and locals about the wealth of wildlife in the area."

"In addition, the exhibition will have a mobile phone number which is being given out to the many naturalists who spend their leisure time on the estuary and the coast, and who are being asked to pass on interesting and up-to-date wildlife sightings to visitors at the exhibition."

Precise opening hours and information for would-be volunteers are available on 01395 517557 or by email at countryside@eastdevon.gov.uk.

Inspiration sought for charity centre garden

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster-based charity offering free and complementary therapy to the public is seeking volunteers.

The Awareness Centre in Chard Street needs volunteers for a variety of tasks.

As well as providing therapies, the centre also has a library and a garden.

Co-ordinator Kizzy Brown said: "Currently we are looking to recruit some volunteers to help out at the centre — we have lots of tasks to assist with — including to help with our garden.

"We are so lucky to have a true secret garden at the rear of the property — a secluded walled garden that really does need some TLC and inspiration, we also need help with our library and reception area — if you can spare a couple of hours per week to work in a peaceful and welcoming atmosphere then please do give us a call."

It was also explained that complementary therapy is an approach that aid healing and promote good health and wellbeing.

Therapies that take place at The Awareness Centre are complementary to standard conventional medicine and not an alternative.

The importance is to treat people as a whole, restoring balance in mind and body.

The centre has a team of dedicated therapists and healers who are all professionally trained and accredited offering sessions in shiatsu, acupuncture, osteopathy, massage, reflexology and general healing.

If you would like some more information about the centre or would like to volunteer, please contact either Julie Faber or Kizzy Brown on 01297 32331.

Disappointment for steam lovers

TRAIN spotters hoping to watch steam locomotives coming through Axminster and Honiton on July 11th and September 5th will be disappointed.

A company named The Cathedrals Express had planned to run steam specials from Salisbury to Exeter on the two dates, passing through Axminster and Honiton.

But a company spokesperson said the trips had either been cancelled or re-routed because a slot could not be found on the busy line.

Axminster resident and former British Rail locomotive fireman Reg Brown had helped to promote the steam specials and was looking forward to the trains passing through Axminster.

He said: "Anyone expecting to see the train coming through on those two days will be disappointed."

He is one of them and added: "I left the railway but the enthusiasm has always been there. It's in the blood."

Players' bid for director

AN amateur dramatics group in Honiton is on the look-out for a director.

Honiton Players recently put on productions of Viva Juanita and now they are planning to produce a comedy performance at the end of October.

Dave Retter, of the Honiton Players, said: "We desperately need someone who can direct the play for us. We want to do a comedy show. The new director could bring in their own comedy play or we could try and produce one and the new director could then direct us.

"Director is one position we have always struggled with. Someone from within the group could do it but it always puts an extra burden on them."

Anyone who would like to put themselves forward as director should contact Mr Retter on 01404 861392 or 07761 926628.

Netball date

HONITON Sports Centre will be the venue for Back to Netball sessions, with the first event taking place at 6pm on Monday, June 7th.

The event is aimed at women over 16-years-old and is being billed as a way of helping people get back into shape.

Jenny Kelly, Devon netball development officer, said: "Back to Netball is a fun coaching and game play session for women aged over 16 who would like to get into or back to playing netball.

"Age and ability doesn't matter, it's about getting fit and having fun."

Each session costs £2. For further details on the sessions contact jennifer.kelly@englandnetball.co.uk.

Circus comes to village for church funds

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

AN east Devon village is hosting a fundraising weekend for its church.

From Friday, June 4th, until Monday, June 6th, Broadhembury, near Honiton, will be turned into a circus and all funds will be donated to the St Andrew's Church.

The event will begin on the Friday at 6pm.

A spokesman for the event said: "Broadhembury is hosting a unique event to raise funds for St Andrew's Church. It is based on a circus theme with acrobats, juggling, Elfie the Jester, plate spinning, magic and games including tightrope walking, pin the nose on the clown, throw a ball in a tiger's mouth and a coconut shy.

"Other activities include a bouncy castle, face painting, balloon animals and real animals including alpacas, greyhounds and horses.

"For children, there's a clown fancy dress competition. There will be lots of varied musical entertainment with musicians in the church and choirs in the gardens of Broadhembury House.

"The church will be offering tours up the tower, flower decorations will be on display and a history of the building will also be available."

Refreshments will be available during the weekend and Ottery Brewery will be providing a beer tent.

Entry costs £2 for adults and 50p for children. Campers will be able to stay on site at a cost of £5 for the weekend. For more information about the fundraising event contact 01404 841369.

Charity awards certificate

A CERTIFICATE of Outstanding Service was presented to the Seaton and Axmouth committee of Cancer Research UK during a recent jumble sale.

The certificate was presented by the charity's head office for 55 years of service.

Paula Vickers of the Seaton and Axmouth committee said: "We took a total of £1,348.88 on Saturday, May 15th.

"Part of that was a very generous donation of £300 but the remainder was, as always, thanks to our wonderful team of helpers and our loyal customers.

"We would like to take this opportunity also to appeal to anyone who might be prepared to give a little of their time to join our band of volunteers — many hands indeed make light work.

"If anyone would care to help us they can call me on 01297 23217."

Battles won at farming competition

HONITON Young Farmers' Club's annual dairy, beef and sheep sale saw 28 members exhibiting 66 lots of stock at Sedgemoor Auction Centre on May 1st.

There was a strong Bulling Heifer class with 13 entries, won by Jenna Rosewell, who also claimed the Best Presented prize. The Perry brothers — Stuart and Winston — were second and third.

Judges David Chave and Mark Herrod had a battle between the Bartlett sisters in the Milking Heifer class.

Rebecca Bartlett took the title but her sister Nicola came away with Reserve Champion and Best Presented titles.

The Beef Bullock class was the largest of the day, with 18 entries and judges Michael Alford and Stuart Parris certainly had their work cut out. Linda Pidsley and her Belgium Blue Monty eventually won The Masons of Chudleigh Cup, seeing off strong competition from Lucy Reed and cousin her Tom Reed, who were second and fourth - with Katie Maynard in between winning bronze.

Katie also took the R.J Leach and Son Award for Best Presented Stockmen whilst Linda claimed the D.B Hawkins and Son Cup for Best Presented.

The Beef Calf class was won by Kate Hopkins ahead of brother and sister Linda and David Pidsley in second and third respectively.

Linda added to her success by gaining the Reserve Champion prize and also took the Best Presented title.

Sheep judges Brian Clothier and Mr Mark Snell had eight lots of couples to pick between.

With anything from three ewes and three lambs to four ewes and 10 lambs it proved to be a difficult task.

Both the West Devon Meat Cup for Best Pen of Lambs and the Alan Derrymen Shield for Best Pen of Ewes and Lambs were won by Nicola Bartlett who also picked up the Honiton YFC Best Double in Show.

Matt Tidball won the Yard Farm Shield and Best Single in the Show was won by Matt Dymond, who was also runner-up in Best Pen of Ewes and Lambs, and fourth in Best Pen of Lambs.

Sarah Pidsley went away with the Honiton YFC Best Triple in Show and third places in the Best Pen of Ewes and Best Pen of Ewes and Lambs.

Best Champion Beef and Best Champion Dairy Handler in Show were two new classes introduced this year.

Nicky Bishop won the Dairy class and Linda Pidsley won the Beef Class, with the latter also winning the F & M Martin Cup for Most Points in the Show, closely followed by Nicola Bartlett.

Show secretary Linda Pidsley said: "We had tremendous support prior to the show with regards to sponsorship.

"We raised enough money to enable us to purchase six new trophies; we had extra classes, bigger prize money and we topped the market for dairy, beef and sheep prices on the day. This year we had 35 sponsors, and the club is truly grateful for their generous support.

"Our main sponsor was J and H Bunn's LTD, fertilizer manufacturers based in Falmouth. Honiton YFC would like to give special thanks to everyone who supported them for their second annual show and sale."

Taking notes for creating wedding bliss

USUALLY, I spend most of the Sunday on a Bank Holiday weekend holed up in the office working. But this weekend just passed was an exception.

Instead, I spent it with friends enjoying a wedding.

The venue was Woodbury Park Hotel and Golf Club, near Exeter, and the couple, farm worker Stuart Graham and his beautiful bride Amy (nee Grime), of Seaton.

I suppose it was going to be a wedding with a difference for My Lovely Farmer and I, seeing as though it would be the first — and only — wedding we will attend whilst we are engaged to be married ourselves.

With less than a month to go to our big day, I guess we had an extra agenda, as well celebrating with the happy couple.

I was taking in all the details from how wide the aisle was when the bride walked down it to what sort of music was played in the evening.

A Sunday wedding was something a little different in itself, although I'm sure they are glad it wasn't on Saturday with its downpours. I think someone may have been looking down on them, spreading a little sunshine.

The bride, a travel consultant in Honiton, was given away by her mum and wore a gorgeous ivory, chiffon dress.

The couple's young daughter, Mia, toddled up the aisle as a bridesmaid and there were four other bridesmaids, including Stuart's sister, Emma.

The two best men, Ben Williams, of Axminster, and Dave Dare, of Kilminster, are school pals of the groom and were all students at the then Axe Valley School, Axminster.

Each best man gave a hilarious and somewhat raucous speech — one embarrassing the groom's mother, Rose.

The staff at Woodbury Park ensured the day ran smoothly whilst guests relaxed, gazing over the stunning grounds and distant views.

Knowing that Pulman's View is well read in Seaton — where most of the wedding party reside — it is always nice to hear it and, it seems, there were quite a few readers celebrating at the wedding. I am also always pleased — and somewhat surprised — to know there are some fans of The Shoes column... and there were a few of those there as well.

There was, of course, some fabulous outfits, a tad too much booze and some dangerous dance moves — all customary at weddings worldwide.

And, as I write this column at six o'clock the following morning with a thick head (also customary), I think of what a fantastic day was had by everyone who was party to Stuart and Amy's special day as they embraced the commitment to their new life together.

And I think to myself, My Lovely Farmer and I will be a lucky pair if our big day goes half as well as theirs did.

Village pub buyers hope

THE Tytherleigh Arms has been placed on the market with the Exeter office of licensed property agents Christie and Co.

Jon Clyne of Christie and Co said: "Our clients, Rachel and Martin Portlock, have owned and operated the Tytherleigh Arms for many successful years, during which time the turnover has risen consistently year after year.

"They now wish to pursue other business interests and family life, providing a fantastic opportunity for new owners to acquire this well established, food-led operation."

The asking price for the freehold interest is £595,000.

Chippy gives hospital cash

AN Axminster business has presented a cheque for £165 to Axminster Hospital.

Lemon Plaice staged a collection over a number of days — saying it would match the amount taken — and customers responded by giving a total of £82.50.

Ann Tarratt, of Lemon Plaice, praised the customers' generosity and said: "A big thank you to them."

£850 stolen

A BURGLARY spree in Axminster saw a total of approximately £850 taken and more than £500 worth of damage caused.

Burglars got away with about £800 in cash when a free standing safe was taken from a farm in Musbury at some point between 5.30pm on Tuesday, May 25th and 9.30am the following day.

Approximately £500 worth of damage was caused when burglars tried to raid Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre at about 10.15pm on Wednesday, May 26th.

The alarm went off and scared away the intruders, but damage was done when they tried to force their way into the building.

Two town centre hair dressers have also been hit.

A West Street hairdresser had £50 taken when burglars broke in overnight between Sunday, May 23rd and the following day.

An unsuccessful attempt to break in to another town centre hairdresser was made overnight between Wednesday, May 26th and the following day.

Anyone with information that could help police officers investigating these crimes is asked to call 08452 777 444 and ask for Axminster police.

Artist celebrates city success

AXMINSTER-BASED artist Michael Morgan enjoyed great success when exhibiting in London and will be celebrating in Beer.

Mr Morgan, who recently had an art studio named after him at Axe Valley Community College, sold five of his six exhibits at private view when displaying at The Mall Galleries in London.

The exhibition was staged by The Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolours, of which Mr Morgan has been a member for 12 years.

People wishing to view some of his creations will soon have an opportunity in Beer.

More than 40 of his paintings will be displayed at Marine House, Beer, for a soloshow named Celebration later this month.

Mr Morgan, who turned 80 in 2008, started painting in his mid 50s after having pursued a career as an academic.

He spoke about his career change during an awards night at Axe Valley Community College last year.

During the speech he explained that his father was unimpressed, saying that being an artist was something for romantic dreamers.

"But for me, becoming an artist was being true to myself," Mr Morgan told the crowd.

Celebration will run from June 19th to July 2nd and the complete list of work can be viewed online — along with opening times — at www.marinehouseatbeer.co.uk.

country scene

TONY JACKSON

Are ladybirds under threat?

HAVE the harlequins arrived in our area? Margery Robinson, a reader, has written to me to say that she has seen a mating pair of bright red ladybirds in her garden and, curiously, they bore no spots at all.

Are these, she wonders, harlequin ladybirds, the invasive species which is a severe threat to the 46 species of ladybird which are resident in Britain?

The harlequin ladybirds, known also as the multi-coloured Asian ladybird and the Halloween ladybird, was first introduced to North America in 1988 where it is now the most widespread ladybird species, and has spread through much of north-western Europe, arriving in Britain in the summer of 2004. It has proliferated rapidly north and west from Essex and Kent where it was first sighted.

How do you recognise a harlequin? Well, it is a large beetle, about a quarter of an inch round and has a wide variety of colours and spots. The wing-case background is pale yellow-orange, orange-red or black and has no spots or a wide pattern of black dots, up to 21.

The most common forms in this country are orange with 15 to 21 black spots, or black with two or four orange or red spots. For a size comparison the harlequin is twice the size of the 2-spot ladybird.

It is, I think, extremely likely that the ladybirds spotted by Margery Robinson are harlequins and if any other readers come across what they think may be this invasive species they should contact the UK Ladybird Survey website.

From ladybirds to bats! I understand that the East Devon AONB Partnership has produced a web movie which allows you to see hibernating bats. The film shows Branscombe Primary School pupils seeing the rare Greater Horseshoe bats which hibernate in the Beer Quarry cave system and can be viewed on www.eastdevonaonb.org.uk/lookingoutforbats.

The bats have now departed from the caves, which are again open to the public, and have headed into the surrounding countryside to search for maternity sites. Several Greater Horseshoe bats carry radio receivers to enable their movements to be tracked.

The film, by the way, has been produced to celebrate this year which has been designated International Year of Biodiversity. For further information about the East Devon AONB and to discover how you can help local wildlife, contact Pete Youngman, the project officer, on 01404 46663.

Dorset is renowned for its wildlife important heathland so the news that the Dorset Fire and Rescue Service (DFRS) was called out to 35 heathland fires in March, April and the first two weeks of May is desperately worrying.

Many of these fires were started deliberately by irresponsible idiots, whilst others were the result of careless accident. Quite apart from the damage caused by a heath fire to birds, insects, reptiles and flora, the fires can be extremely dangerous to human life, often spreading under a wind faster than a human can run.

A meeting has recently been held with Dorset Police, DFRS and the Urban Heaths Partnership to try and reduce arson on heathland sites. The police already patrol these areas and the DFRS will have members of its Fire Community Safety Task Team watching the areas as well, the patrols to be co-ordinated by the Urban Heaths Partnership wardens.

The simple fact is that all heathland in Dorset has an owner or management body and starting a fire on any of these sites is arson and a criminal offence.

A conviction for the crime can have grave implications, particularly if an individual is seeking employment. Please, if you see a heath fire, however small, dial 999 and provide location and possible access points.

Scott Rowe Solicitors

The legal aspects of planning for later life and retirement can often seem complicated and overwhelming.

At Scott Rowe we understand that many people would rather not think about making a Will. However, it is vital to make one to ensure that your wishes are carried out, and to make the most of any tax benefits available.

A Will can be simple or complex, depending on your requirements, and we believe that our role is to assist you in making a Will suitable for your situation. Terry Trott, Head of the Wills and Probate Department says, 'If you pass away without a valid Will then you are said to have died 'intestate'. It can leave your family with a financial and administrative burden when establishing who the true beneficiaries are, and this may also mean that people who you wished to benefit miss out'.

You may also wish to consider making a Lasting Power of Attorney, which can be used by people you have nominated to run your affairs on your behalf, should you become unable to. This can cover both your financial future and your personal and welfare decisions whilst you are alive.

At Scott Rowe we can also advise you on how best to plan and arrange your finances in order to fund possible future care, including equity release schemes, and on buying or selling your home if you are looking to move house in the future.

As a local firm of Solicitors we pride ourselves on delivering excellent customer service, and our clients agree, with over 98% of our clients recently surveyed saying that we provided a good quality of service and that they would recommend us to others. We are friendly and easy to talk to and we are happy to arrange to come out and see you in your own home if that is easier.

Talk given on ShelterBox - and how the charity works

THE Honiton Afternoon WI was held on Monday, May 10th when the president welcomed 18 members and two visitors.

The secretary reminded the members of the forthcoming 90th celebration of the Devon Federation service at Exeter Cathedral on June 14th when it is hoped many will attend.

The group outing to Sherborne and Shaftesbury will be on July 6th so it is hoped for fine weather.

The group proposes to have its annual outing early September and many members have shown interest in various places.

Jenny Townsend gave the treasurer's report.

Six members were among 1,000 WI members who attended the spring council meeting at the Riviera Centre, Torquay.

Annette Dentith gave a presentation of women in civil engineering. The main speaker was the opera singer, Leslie Garrett, who spoke of 30 years as a professional singer, and ended her talk singing as only she can.

The speaker this month was a gentleman who spoke on the charity ShelterBox. The talk began with how the idea was put into practice in Helston.

All the members found it interesting as to what each box contains — tent for 8-10 persons, cooking equipment, blankets, children's games and, perhaps more amazing that, within 24 hours of a disaster boxes will have been delivered.

Charity dance with model competition

HONITON Folk Dance Club held a charity dance for Devon Air Ambulance on Monday, May 24th.

More than 40 dancers attended the event coming from as far afield as Minehead and Axminster.

Foot-tapping music was provided by the Amicrofters Folk Dance Band who filled the Turks Head Lodge function room with energetic sound.

The caller, Aileen Wills, had everyone on their feet with smiles on their faces.

There was a competition for the best homemade model helicopter. This was judged by Maggie Little from Devon Air Ambulance.

She had a difficult job as the models ranged from enormous and simple, to smaller, beautifully detailed examples.

Maggie was pleased to discuss her thoughts with her husband, Jack, who was also present.

After much consideration by the judge, the competition was won by a lady from the Axminster area.

She had produced a magnificently detailed model, using recycled plastic pieces to create her masterpiece in its true colours.

The runner up was made from scrap pieces of wood expertly shaped and painted by Edward Reid.

This model is to be raffled at a

Devon Air Ambulance shop to raise further funds.

Other models were destined to be given to children. The stage was dominated by a five-foot model made from wood and cardboard boxes.

It sat on a tall stand decked out in its air ambulance colours.

Above the centre of the stage a balloon sculptured helicopter turned lazily in the draft from the fans.

Maggie Little thanked everyone for their efforts. She pointed out that the Devon Air Ambulance had flown over 16,000 missions.

As the Amicrofters played Those Magnificent Men in their Flying Machines, the dancing restarted with more vigour.

It is thought that over £100 was raised on the evening aided by a raffle and donations.

No doubt the helicopter raffle will raise more. At the end of the evening everyone went home with the satisfaction of having had a wonderful evening, and raising money for a brilliant cause.

If any readers would like to try some light-hearted folk dancing to live music do come along to Honiton Folk Dance Club on any Monday, 8pm at Turks Head Lodge Function rooms.

Everyone will be made welcome. For further details, call 01404 46451 or visit www.amicrofters.co.uk.

Learning of Dog's Trust

PRESIDENT Olive Owen welcomed everyone to the May meeting of Axmouth WI.

At a recent spring council meeting in Torquay, the resolution was passed in favour of badger culling. This resolution will be taken forward at Cardiff on the club's behalf.

It was reported that on June 7th, food craft and skills, formerly known as home economics, would hold a bread making and jewellery day. July 5th would be patchwork day and on July 19th there would be a coach trip to Athelhampton. A Constance Spry Style Day would be held on September 6th.

Outings have been arranged to Broadwindsor Craft Centre on July 5th and a Christmas shopping day to Bath on December 6th.

Next month's meeting will be a garden party at Sandpipers. Please bring a plate of food.

A Dog's Trust member gave a most interesting talk about the work of the charity. The Dog's Trust started in 1891 when it was then known as the National Canine Defence League. The mission statement promotes giving dogs a happy life free from threat and unnecessary destruction. It is the largest dog's charity and works closely with the RSPCA.

Dogs usually stay for four to six weeks and undergo a thorough veterinary check up, micro-chipping, vaccination and neutering before being rehomed. Some dogs that are picked up as strays are kept in their kennels for eight days before rehousing. Dogs are returned to the Trust when owners are no longer able to take care of them. It is also possible to adopt a dog. All homes are inspected before a dog is allowed to leave the Dog's Trust. As there is no government funding legacies and fundraising is crucial.

Interesting meeting with tricky quiz

THE May meeting of Musbury and Whitford WI was held in Whitford Village Hall.

It was a special meeting because it was divided into two parts. First was the usual business, and then members had to vote on this year's resolution, which is that the country of origin, should be shown on all foodstuffs, this was carried unanimously. All Saints will carry this forward to the annual meeting.

The group then came to the second part, which was members night, and the minutes of the last one were read by the acting secretary.

A special presentation was made to one lady for her birthday but also for all the extra work she does, sorting out outings and theatre trips and much more. A basket of flowers was presented on behalf of all members.

The group then took part in a quiz, which was said to be quite easy, but it was not.

A break was taken for refreshments which most members contributed something towards. There were lots of lovely goodies, including tiramasu, all of which went down very well.

The quiz, which was not getting any easier, then continued.

There was a sales table going on and a plant stall, plus a raffle, the proceeds of which, going to the club's charity, which is the women's refuge.

Entries for the competition for the spring group meeting were judged with money, which is going to ACWW, so lots of activities.

The real committee were thanked for their sterling work.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, June 8th at Whitford Village Hall. at 7.30pm, and is Maori Bone Carving, as usual all are welcome. It had indeed been a very full and interesting meeting.

DON'T LET FLEAS BECOME PART OF THE FURNITURE

Each female flea can lay up to 50 eggs a day on your pet. These scatter around the home wherever your pet goes, so you can see how your pets and your home can quickly become infested. A flea infestation can be difficult to get rid of and is distressing for you and your pets.

Pulman's

the churches

With Nigel Speller

RAY Hunter of Axminster Christian Fellowship speaks out this week.

He said: "This technological age can sometimes be a trial especially to those of us who are slow of finger. How excellent though to be able to download missed programmes on iPlayer, especially BBC's Songs of Praise on Pentecost Sunday.

"What an excellent programme this was about the ministry of the Holy Spirit, through the tales from the Welsh Revival in the early 1900s and the testimony and worship of the folk from the King's Church in Newport. "As I watched my heart cried, 'Oh God, please come again in your sovereign power to bring revival to this land.'

"The answer to my cry was the same that has echoed down the ages to many believers seeking national revival, from 2 Chronicles 7 v 14.

"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

The monthly news for June from Exeter Diocese, published this week contains advance notice about Back to Church Sunday which is marked on September 26th.

There are useful packs available at www.backtochurch.co.uk and on June 15th at 2pm at St Leonard's Church, Exeter, is a local, free seminar for clergy and laity to plan for this event.

Other free seminars are being held at Buckfastleigh on June 16th at 10am, and at 7.30pm the same day at Okehampton, each to assist those wishing to plan for September 26th.

The same issue of the news carries a full page article from the Bishop of Cyprus and the Gulf about life and work out there in Exeter's linked Diocese.

As I write this week, there is bad news of further killings in Baghdad, this time associated with attacks in the main shopping area.

The Archdeacon of Exeter visited St John Baptist Church, Membury, on May 23rd to bless the recently refurbished bells. And over the last weekend of the month also at Membury church there was a flower festival.

The festival formed part of the Oak Apple celebrations in the village.

Colyton's parish church put on show recently for viewing by visitors and local people, a large number of church documents which are shortly to be deposited for safe keeping at the County Record Office in Exeter.

The documents to be deposited include old parish magazines, closed visitors' books and documents relating to the parish church which date back to pre-Second World War.

All and many other records will still be available for inspection at the Exeter Record Office.

Summer weather means that outdoor services are due once again. Branscombe church will be holding its first Songs of Praise on the beach, with the Lyme Regis Band at 6pm on June 20th.

Church choirs are being offered the chance of taking part in a unique recording project at the Royal Albert Hall in September, later this year. For more information, contact oliver.harrop@music.com.

Members of Roman Catholic churches are looking forward to the visit of Pope Benedict also in September.

While this is regarded as a 'state visit' and so eligible for some public funding, Catholic churches have been taking special collections to assist the costs of the visit.

News this week of two books concerning church buildings — which almost certainly feature certain places in Devon, and might make interesting reading for visitors this summer.

The first is titled Discovering the Smallest Churches in England, which are defined as a 30ft nave or less and seating 50 people or less. The second work is The Old Rectory: the story of the English Parsonage, by Anthony Jennings who is also director of the Save our Parsonages group, one of whose purposes is to make sure that all aspects are examined whenever the future of old parsonages becomes a live issue.

On June 6th at 11am in Colyton church, there will be an auction of Silent Promises in aid of the Choir Bursary Fund.

◆ REV Darrell Holmes

Rev Darrell new legion chaplain

REVEREND Darrell Holmes, Pastor of Kilmington Baptist Church, has taken on the role of Honorary Chaplain to the Kilmington Branch of the Royal British Legion.

He takes over from Reverend Lincoln Jones, who held the post for more than 20 years but retired last November. Pastor Holmes said that he looks forward to playing his part in safeguarding the welfare, interests and memory of those who are serving or who have served in the Armed Forces, and to ministering to branch members.

1950s-based musical for charity CRY

AXMOUTH Village Hall will be the venue for a charity drama show with all the money raised being donated to Cardiac Risk in the Young (CRY).

Hairgel is a musical based in the late 1950s. It will be staged at the hall over three nights from Thursday, June 3rd.

Show director and co writer Malcolm Henty said: "We have a great group of enthusiastic youngsters who are prepared to give up their time in order to raise money for charity, the musical is based in the late 1950s and has thrown up some challenges for them but they always give it their best shot and they are always encouraged to put their own ideas into the show.

"They have raised the money for their costumes and scenery by acting as waiters and waitresses at a recent meal in the village hall."

Mr Henty added: "What the group really wanted to do was Grease, but the American owners have put a block on people other than schools doing the full show at present, so the next best thing was to write our own show and Hairgel was born.

"Many of the songs in the show are from the late 50s and early 60s, many with completely new sets of lyrics reflecting the storyline which cannot be revealed.

"With all the bad publicity that youngsters get these days, and the pressure put upon them, these kids should be praised for their efforts and anyone attending the show will be treated to a good fun night out."

All shows will begin at 7.30pm. For tickets contact 01297 23847.

You don't need a Mr Big budget to bag the four girls designer looks! Hit the high street for these SATC2 copycat finds and you'll have a closet to rival Carrie, Samantha, Charlotte or Miranda in no time. Married life as Mrs Big hasn't toned down Carrie's trademark kookiness. She takes to the desert in metallic turbans and punctuates block colour dresses with sparkling jewellery and clashing sky-high heels. Expect a nod to the past when Carrie's iconic John Galliano for Dior newsprint dress gets a re-run 10 years on. What else could you expect from Samantha but sexpot chic? The singleton makes her style impact in uber-bright colours and slinky silhouettes to catch potential suitors eyes. And whether partying with the girls or sunbathing, she piles on the glitz with shimmering metallics and statement embellished pieces. Charlotte, the Park Avenue Princess is all set to give us a lesson in quintessential prim-and-proper style. Anticipate ladylike shifts, prom dresses and colour co-ordinating to the max. Her desert vacation suitcase is packed with wide-brimmed hats, floaty scarves and glamorous prints. Miranda is still the career woman with a wardrobe that means business. Slimming World's Curry Heaven cookbook promises weight loss 'second to naan'

Curries are officially the Brits' favourite dish, and it's no surprise that our passion for chicken tikka masala and onion bhajis has coincided with the growing size of our waists. Most curries are loaded with fat and salt, and a typical takeaway can contain a whole day's worth of calories for an average woman. But that doesn't mean curry has to be off the menu when you're watching your waist. A new Curry Heaven recipe book from Slimming World proves that you can enjoy all your favourite curries at home for a fraction of the cost and calories of a takeaway or ready meal.

Slimming World Consultant Sharon who runs Slimming World groups in Honiton and Ottery St Mary explains: "Takeaway curries are seriously high in fat, so people wanting to lose weight probably think they have to give up one of their favourite meals – and that feeling that you're depriving yourself makes it hard to stick with a weight loss plan. However, it's really easy to make curries that are just as delicious but contain a fraction of the fat, and our new curry cookbook is full of easy recipes the whole family can enjoy guilt free!

Food Optimising is a healthy eating programme for healthy appetites. Generous and flexible, it encourages slimmers to fill up on naturally filling, healthy foods like fruit and veg, rice and potatoes, fish and lean meat, so they can enjoy real food, never go hungry and still lose weight.

Sharon says: "Eating healthy doesn't have to mean eating boring. It's the spices that make curry dishes what they are, not the fats. Our recipes dramatically cut down on the amount of oil, butter and cream traditionally used in curries, so they're healthier and just as tasty. My members are raving about the recipes in the new book because they're losing weight without having to compromise on flavour or choice.

"The book has recipes for everything from starters such as onion bhajis and vegetable samosas to hot and spicy main dishes like classic chicken curry and beef madras or Kerala-style fish, classic pilau rice and aloo gobi. The tasty curry creations fill 120 pages of splendidly illustrated dishes created especially for Slimming World members to enjoy as often as they like!"

Melanie Brown's

Experts say it's the most advanced system available and Melanie Brown's Hair & Beauty salon, in Devon, is leading the way in providing this revolutionary product for the people of Axminster.

Melanie Brown, founder of Business Melanie Brown's Hair & Beauty Salon explains how the state of the art Energist system will benefit people looking for permanent hair loss, skin rejuvenation, wrinkle reduction and answers to unsightly pigmentation, acne and red veins.

What makes this System special?

Traditionally, most cosmetic procedures have been associated with lasers. As technology has progressed, research has shown that intense pulsed light units – and in particular Variable Pulsed Light Systems – are regularly producing better results than the laser systems originally available. The UltraPlus™ system is designed in such a way that a greater range of hair and skin types can be safely and effectively treated than was previously possible.

How does it work?
Depending upon the treatment being carried out, light emitted from the UltraPlus™ System is preferentially absorbed by the specific structure in the skin. For hair removal, the melanin in the hair absorbs this light and is heated to a temperature that permanently inhibits the hair growth. For skin rejuvenation, various structures can absorb the light and repair the damage caused by ageing and the sun.

What conditions can be treated? Using the UltraPlus™ System's red light, unwanted hair can be removed from all parts of the body, including legs, chin, upper lip, bikini line, underarm, back and chest. Many skin complaints caused by ageing and sun damage can be successfully treated using the System's yellow light. These include redness, rosacea, age spots, freckles, pigment changes, skin texture and fine lines. Recent studies have also encouraged Energist to develop a specialist Acne applicator, to help manage acne at all severity levels.

Who can be treated and how much does it cost?

The versatility of the Ultra-

Plus™ System provides a safe and effective treatment for men and women, and for most hair and skin types. A consultation will provide you with a complete treatment programme. As there are little or no visible side-effects, procedures can be performed quickly and safely.

When will I see results?
Dependent on the treatment and the area targeted, you will see optimum results over a period of months. This is due to the body's natural hair growth cycles and skin renewal.

An eyesore

EDITOR — Thank goodness the elections are all over. I do hope the dust will settle and things will improve for everyone.

Our little town of Honiton is looking so sad and shabby now. With all the cutbacks due there will be a lack of flowers in our beds.

What about the hanging baskets? All the verges look a mess as they will not be cut as often.

I don't know what visitors will make of the town now. It is not exactly welcoming or very picturesque to the eye.

I can't see having a Beehive Centre will improve this town. Funny, they can find money for that but we are deprived of flowers and getting the verges cut.

It really makes no sense to me. Surely the upkeep of the town comes first. Still we await the news if the Bungalow will re-open and what the plans are for it. What is more important these days?

Despite recession town and nation dig deep for charity

EDITOR — When we look at the world today many would throw up their hands in despair. How can we possibly do anything to make any difference to the poorest in the world?

But did Seaton residents do nothing? No! In Christian Aid Week they put their hands deep into their pockets despite the recession and raised over £3,250 with more to come. Now think of that result multiplied by all the towns in the land. It means that Seaton people care and the nation cares about those who are the poorest in the world and who bear the biggest share of this world's suffering.

Many, many thanks to all those people who took part in any way. The organiser, Hugh Barlow, all the house to house collectors; the counters, and most of all, Seaton residents who took the plea to end world poverty seriously and gave so generously.

Your money will go to those destitute after a natural disaster, for example Haiti, and also for long-term development projects where the very poor can be helped to help themselves through growing food, better health, education and clean water which they cannot otherwise afford.

By giving so much Seaton residents are giving hope to the poorest of the world. Bless you all.

If you would like to continue to support Christian Aid you are warmly invited to come and enjoy a Strawberry Cream Tea at Seaton Methodist Church on Saturday, June 26th from 3pm to 4.30pm.

Ex-commerce chairman's comments are nothing short of scaremongering

EDITOR — As an Axminster resident I am writing in response to the comments made by Mr Fred Wells regarding the building of affordable homes at Cloakham.

I am sure that if Mr Wells was still in business he would have welcomed the additional revenue that this development would have provided.

I am certain that his colleagues from the chamber of commerce, of which he was chairman, would have widely differing views to his.

His scaremongering comments regarding gridlock in the town and danger to school children are ill-founded.

The main benefit to the Axminster community would be the fact that any profit from the Axminster Carpets venture would be retained within the area and benefit the region as a whole.

Surely Axminster Carpets' record of investment and resulting benefits within our community speak for themselves?

In any event the so-called alternative

Persimmon Homes project, which they say would provide for a relief road, actually means that somewhere in the region of £30,000 would have to be added to the price of each house to cover the costs.

Not very affordable! And a long way off.

Answers on German war after article

EDITOR — With regard to the article on German prisoners of war remaining in the UK until 1948 — May 11th issue — this was a decision of the Labour government based on the fact the Germans wrecked our cities with bombing so therefore they can stay behind to assist clearing up the mess.

As it turned out this was to some extent fortunate as the prisoners learned from family letters how life was under the Communist regime and so elected to remain here.

A good example would be the footballer Bert Trautmann who famously played in an FA cup final with a broken neck.

I realise that we bombed German cities but we won and they lost so we could retain a workforce and they could not.

Town's right to comment

EDITOR — This town poll in Honiton bestows upon local people their right to register a vote that answers the following question: do you wish for the town council to proceed with the community complex plans?

Their ability to make an informed response to that question relies upon the town council publishing the following information.

- Costs to produce the original version of a Community Centre
- Costs to produce the second version of a Community Centre known as "Complex"
- Costs thus far expended to produce the third version of a Community Centre known as "The Beehive".

Note, the final version of the business plan is not due to be released for another two months per advice of the town clerk.

A long trip down memory lane at Cricket St Thomas

EDITOR — I was interested to read in your paper about Cricket St Thomas gardens being redesigned.

My father worked in those gardens for over 50 years.

He started after leaving school. It was then owned by Fry's Quaker Folk.

When WWI broke out it was fight for your country. My father, his brother and others who worked at the gardens went. Mr Fry died but he left his employees £10 each which my father said without which he couldn't have got married.

After the war work was short. In those days there were cottages for all the workers. Not many had toilets or electricity but it was take it or leave it. My father then worked for the Halls.

They came from Australia. They had plenty of money made from wool and gold. It was hard in those days.

My father used to scythe the slopes. They also grew lemons and peaches in conservatories with the heating always kept on.

Holidays unheard of in those days. Living on the estate the children had a Christmas party.

It was great with a huge tree with crackers and everyone had a gift and then there was a silent movie like Charlie Chaplin or Mickey Mouse, a great treat in those days.

There were lots of children it was like a huge happy family. When Johnny Hall got married they held a party for all the workers.

At that time little did I know that I would work for Mrs Hall when I left school. I was a maid and worked for six shillings and sixpence a week on full board.

It was great to have a real bath and flushing toilets. When the GIs were stationed at Cricket St Thomas during WWII they couldn't understand why one lady lived in such a big house.

Enough of my memories. We hope the gardens do well.

Keep greenbelt land, build elsewhere

EDITOR — Regarding the Business Development Units land to the north of Harepath Road, Seaton.

I write in response to your article of last week's Pulman's View in relation to the above topic to which I am strongly opposed.

Barkley Park Cedar Limited was totally rejected by the EDDC development committee and all three Seaton ward members not to mention members of Colyton Parish Council as well as members of Seaton Town Council when they sought planning permission for affordable homes on land not so far from their current planning application.

The land they have chosen is the only green belt corridor in the area and is needed to separate and preserve the boundaries of Seaton, Colyford and Colyton.

It would appear this time that in place of the affordable homes carrot they are now using the ploy of employment.

I think it is time the local planning authority understand that the majority of local people do not want to see this green belt disappear.

The land should not be developed in any way whatsoever.

Why build such premises when for some years the Seaton Heights Hotel has been left to deteriorate because the planning authority cannot agree on what they want to see there?

Surely it would be better to use these premises to bring what the developers say they want and make the premises live again instead of being a blot on the horizon because councils cannot agree. After reading the article it is my hope that people will unite and stop this development and insist that this land remain the greenbelt we all enjoy.

Carpet company has shown commitment to town since the 1940s

EDITOR — I am writing in response to Mr Wells Star Letter in Pulman's View on May 18th.

I am one of many people, who include Axminster Carpets, concerned about making the right choices for any future development in Axminster to minimise congestion and the impact on local services.

I have worked for Axminster Carpets for over 20 years and have, over the years, experienced many things which show that the interests of their employees, local families and other residents of the town are of great importance and always the company's first priority in any decision making.

Over the years the company has supported and donated towards many events in and around the Axminster area. A family firm who have shown a strong commitment to the town since the 1940s. I am more than sure that Axminster Carpets have gone to great lengths to ensure their proposed development plans have the best interests for everyone who would benefit from this.

Name and address supplied

Jobs needed with homes

EDITOR — Regarding the proposed housing at Cloakham Lawns, Axminster.

I have refrained from writing at an earlier date as I was afraid my opinion may appear to be somewhat biased due to the fact I was employed at Axminster Carpets for over 48 years and am currently a shareholder.

On the other side of the coin I was a local councillor for 34 years serving six years as mayor and my love of Axminster is well-known, having grown up in the town and been involved in many local activities and organisations.

When I read the local press last week and knowing personal involvements and historical facts I felt compelled to write.

Axminster desperately needs affordable housing and employment in order to keep our younger members in the town.

Axminster Carpets has proved its dedication to the town and its residents for many years and in many various ways and is not 'just in it for the money'.

Cloakham Lawns sports facility is just one example of public spiritedness.

The alternative application involves over 300 more homes and has no local commitment whatsoever.

The increased pressure on education and health provision would be even greater as would the increased traffic.

I sincerely trust that all those involved in making decisions on this matter will honestly consider what is best for Axminster's future and appreciate the existing proof of support and generosity over a number of years.

Homes & Interiors

Creating a cosy home

Ensure it really is 'home sweet home' by creating comfortable, welcoming rooms for family and friends. Follow top tips from an expert in style. There are some homes which envelop guests in feelings of warmth, like a blanket. And in these uncertain, insecure times, what we all need are re-assuring, unpretentious sanctuaries, according to interiors author, Caroline Clifton-Mogg.

"There's no doubt that the way we want to live now has changed, the idea of gross excess in all its forms is no longer desirable. Quiet enjoyment - based around the home - is seen as admirable," she points out. "I think it's the ideal moment to look more closely at our homes and see how we can make them more comfortable without huge injections of cash, without turning everything upside down or bringing in major changes."

Her new book, aptly named The Comforts of Home, includes an inspiring collection of rejuvenating and transformative tips. Some of the guidance harks back to inexpensive natural remedies, and housekeeping rituals of bygone eras, while other suggestions are ingenious ways to achieve bang-up-to-date styles without breaking the bank.

Caroline, who lives in London but has over the years travelled Europe visiting a myriad homes, says: "The current order of the day is a house that is warm and easy to live in, decorated with individuality and taste, not excess and extravagance."

"There are so many things that one can do to make a place, a room, more comfortable, more pleasant to be in - so many small decorative changes that rely on imagination and style, different rooms to rejuvenate your home.

"This is another decorator's tip," says Caroline. "It's done for the same reason that it's all too easy to get used to seeing things so that they almost become invisible through familiarity. Pile up cushions in one area and then try them out on different seats, in new areas, or consider having lighter cushion covers for summer months to ring the changes."

• Ring the changes in the kitchen. If you normally have only table mats, use tablecloths.

"Tablecloths are comfortable, cosy, and when they dress a table they suggest delicious meals soon to be eaten," says Caroline.

So get out the china kept in cupboards for special occasions, and use it more frequently. Or, if you don't want to risk special pieces getting damaged, put up shelves and display it.

• Bring new life to the bedroom, says Caroline, by bringing out your collection of bedspreads and bed linen and trying different combinations. Discard (or recycle) sets rarely used, and consider taking advantage of sales and investing in a couple of new bed linen sets a year, she says.

Old quilts can be used to make bedroom cushions, window seat cushions or for ottoman and stool tops, as the extra padding adds to the comfort of the seat. You can also try folding old curtains or smaller quilts and using them on the back of sofas or on the end of a bed.

• Create window seats throughout the house.

"These don't merely provide extra seating but are also a lovely spot to sit and gaze out. It's worth taking a close look at windows that are roughly the right height from the floor to see whether one might work. It could be constructed to be as simple as a bench seat, made as a box seat with a hinged top, or even as a cupboard to store toys, clutter or a wine rack."

• Use your eyes and watch how other people do it.

"Nothing sharpens the mind so much as seeing what other people want, and how much they might be prepared to pay for it," says Caroline. "Browse antiques sites on the internet, graze antique price guides, look in shop windows. As the old cliché goes, 'One man's junk is another man's treasure' and I guarantee that the moment you see an old print, chair or vase rather like the one you have at home, the one you actually own will become even lovelier than it already is." You can quickly transform.

HAVE YOU GOT A BUILDING QUESTION YOU NEED ANSWERED?

Each month on our Homes and Interiors feature we shall have a new helpful section with Nick Whittaker of N.J.

Whittaker Ltd. in Honiton who is an experienced and fully qualified builder who will answer your questions. This can be anything from DIY queries, a query about new laws and regulations, to a dispute with a builder you have at the moment. Please either email your questions to kelly@pemedial.co.uk or post them to:

Kelly Baker, Pulman's View From, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster, Devon EX13 5AD

A question will be picked out and answered each month

THIS MONTH'S QUESTION:

I recently ask for quotes on our proposed house extension and of the four quotes returned three were quite close with one being substantially lower than the other three. I am tempted to take a gamble and go with the lowest what would you advise are the possible pitfalls with this?

ANSWER:

Well you certainly hit the nail on the head saying you are taking a gamble!

If the three other quotes are all close then it is probable there is something wrong with the lowest quote. They have either made a mistake in pricing or have not included for all the items the others have or they are going to try and claw the difference back if they get the job by either cutting corners, excessive charges for variations or both and in the worst case get an early high payment and disappear half way through the job. Get a detailed breakdown of there price and compare it with the second lowest price, that should give you some clues where the differences lie. And finally get a few references from recent jobs they have completed. Good luck!

Alexander Paul

Imagine a whole range of bespoke, high quality, hand made furniture, made to your specification and topped off with a magnificent piece of solid, inch thick slate.

Slate top tables allow you this wonderful opportunity; to become a furniture designer and create the table design of your dreams, from as little as £295!

Slate can be either traditional or contemporary as a table surface, it just depends on the design of the table base you design and choose for it.

Slate top tables will allow you to design a magnificent full sized dining table. If a new dining table is not on your shopping list, then maybe a console table, a serving table, a coffee table or a garden table is. You choose if it is to be crafted in new or antique oak; in a painted (colour of your choice) or contemporary "shabby chic" finish; you choose if you want it to have fashionable French style, square tapering legs, or if it bears the more substantial, stopped chamfered legs of a century earlier; You can even choose if it should be commissioned as a circular, square or rectangular table. Drawers, handles and size are all design features for you to design and build in!

Coffee tables start from as little as £295 and have many individual design options to choose from. Garden and patio tables look fantastic with a choice of styles including the stylish "Axminster" with its Arts and crafts inspired X stretcher base, all capped of course with an impressive slab of riven slate and raised on freshly cut, green oak.

Exhibiting at The Devon County Show the response and enthusiasm was unprecedented. The tactile nature of the slate was evident as it drew people to our stand, hands outstretched to touch the cool, calm slate that bears the companies name.

If you want a table; modern, contemporary or traditional then go to our easy to use website www.slatetop-tables.com and let us help you to design the table of your dreams!

Slate top tables; as individual as you are!
Alexander Paul Antiques is delighted to be associated with Slate Top Tables. "Many of the design features and styles offered have been drawn directly from and inspired by the beautiful pieces of Antique French country furniture which have passed through our showrooms" advises David Steele, co founder and director of both Slate Top Tables and Alexander Paul Antiques.

We welcome all our readers to come and visit our extensive showrooms at Fenny Bridges near Honiton, to experience for themselves the beauty and serenity of both the largest range of French county dining tables on the internet and the magnificence of the new range of furniture designed by you the customer crowned with slate.

Alexander Paul Antiques also offer a full antique and modern furniture restoration service; we presently have all the medieval pews and later furniture from a local church in our workshops (having now dried out after the floods 18 months ago) rubbing shoulders with a valuable collection of Ercol furniture which is in for complete re-finishing.

If you have a piece of furniture which requires restoration you can rely on the professional and highly skilled services of the apprentice served tradesmen at Alexander Paul Antiques. Please visit our full online stock catalogue at www.alexanderpaulantiques.com

Double celebration for 'very special' officers

TWO special constabulary members plying the Pulman's Country beat received official recognition for their services last month.

Special Constable Mark Dawkins and Special Constabulary Chief Inspector John Massen were presented with long service and good conduct awards during a ceremony in Cullumpton on Monday, May 24th.

Mark joined Devon and Cornwall Special Constabulary in 1999 and has been serving in Honiton.

His citation said: "Mark now spends the majority of his duties working with the local PCSOs and identifying and addressing the needs of the local rural communities around Honiton.

"He has developed an excellent working relationship with everyone in the Neighbourhood Policing Team and has provided significant input at key times in a very rural area.

"Mark has been involved with a range of policing issues in and around Honiton.

"On initially joining the force Mark carried out response duties, dealing with a variety of incidents from public order to domestic abuse.

"Mark has played a key role in policing a variety of events in the Honiton area. Mark has also supported a number of other special constabulary officers with their training and mentoring.

"Mark lives in the rural community of Dunkswell and is therefore well placed to address issues that matter to local people.

"He is a keen fly fisher and a black belt in karate. He is married with two boys who, although are now grown up, have seen the dedicated service their father has given to local policing.

"Mark has demonstrated dedication, commitment and professionalism to the Special Constabulary over the past 10 years."

John joined on September 12th 1991 and was based at Seaton Police Station.

At the end of his probationary period he was described as "having completed 330 hours in six months and shows a great deal of promise for such a young officer and is already becoming a credit to the special constabulary".

His citation said: "John was promoted to Sergeant in January 2007, Inspector in January 2009 and Chief Inspector in October 2009.

"On September 4th 1999 John was responsible, together with another constable, for making an arrest of three known offenders for theft of marine equipment and recovered property in Lyme Regis.

"John and another constable were the first to attend an incident in Axminster following the suspicious death of a middle aged man.

"John's training and professionalism ensured that the area was contained, including detaining others in the area until further resources were available. "John received a Basic Command Unit Commander's Certificate in recognition of his work.

"In July 2009 John received a second BCU Commander's Certificate for his team contribution to recruitment of special constables in the east Devon area.

"His team worked towards developing a new recruitment campaign increasing the special constabulary numbers by 45 per cent. "John's support and professionalism is hugely valued by the special constabulary senior management team."

Among those attending the awards night were Devon and Cornwall Constabulary Chief Constable Stephen Otter, Lord Lieutenant of Devon Eric Dancer and Devon and Cornwall Police Authority Chair Mike Bull, attending.

MILLSTOCK MOVE INTO HONITON TOWN

We would like to congratulate Sarah and Sue for their hard work and dedication in making Millstock Ltd the premier Property Letting Agents in East Devon and Honiton area and we wish them loads of luck and prosperity in their recent move into new offices right where they need to be... in the hub of the community.

From Mr & Mrs P (Scotland) Landlords of a property in Honiton let and managed by Millstock Ltd

Dear Sarah and Sue – Congratulations on moving to your new offices. I wish you continued success. Mr B

MILLSTOCK LETTINGS are delighted to announce the relocation of their office into the centre of Honiton Town.

Since the launch of their residential property letting business in 2007, the Directors' main objective has always been to establish a professional and respectable local business. Sarah's ARLA (Association of Residential Letting Agents) exam success, continued business growth and numbers of satisfied customer testimonials have gone a long way to achieving this objective. However, the final 'icing on the cake' was when they took the keys and moved into their new office on King Street, Honiton.

For several months the team, Sarah and Sue, have been looking to bring the office into a central town location for the convenience of tenants and landlords alike and they have welcomed a steady flow of visitors from day one.

With other lettings agents either working from home or incorporated within estate agencies, Millstock are proud to be the only agents in Honiton town purely dedicated to residential property letting.

'We are totally dedicated to offering unparalleled customer service to both our landlords and tenants at every step of the way and really do treat each property as we would one of our own. When you are trusting your most valued asset to another person, we believe you should have total belief and confidence in the service you are receiving.'

If you are a landlord looking to rent your property or a tenant looking for a new home, please do not hesitate to call in or call either Sarah or Sue on 01404 548787. They can be found at 1 King Street – the offices formerly occupied by Blackmore Electrical who have moved to larger premises within the complex.

Dear Sarah and Sue
We are delighted to hear of your move into Honiton town. We have always been delighted with your management of our property in Honiton and look forward to working with you for many years to come.
Kind regards
Mr & Mrs C

Dear Millstock
Having been one of your very first landlords, I am thrilled to see your business going from strength to strength - you deserve it - well done. Wishing you every success in your new office in King Street.
Regards
Ms C

LAWRENCE RESIDENTIAL

SEATON - £435,000

There is an opportunity to purchase a substantial and most attractive three bedroomed house located on one of the premier roads in Seaton which benefits from outstanding views over Lyme Bay.

Constructed, we believe in 1935, the property has colour washed rendered elevations under a tiled roof and has been the subject of a comprehensive and exacting restoration and now features beautifully presented accommodation that includes a new central heating system, new kitchen and bathrooms, cavity wall insulation, upgraded roof insulation and the construction of a new double garage. Detailed planning permission exists for the construction of an annexe to the rear, which would be suitable for holiday or a dependent relative. The house occupies a good sized plot with parking space for a boat or caravan. The pitch of the roof and windows at both gable ends would suggest that further space could be created within the roof space subject to the usual consents.

The accommodation in detail includes entrance conservatory, lounge, dining/kitchen and study, together with cloakroom on the ground floor. The first floor comprises three bedrooms, family bathroom and separate wc. There is a balcony accessed from bedroom two that provides a superb view across Lyme

Bay and the property has gas fired central heating and double glazing throughout. Landscaped gardens and grounds to front and rear.

For more information or to arrange a viewing contact John Wood & Co 01297 20290 or www.johnwood.co.uk

No more HIPs

ESTATE agents have welcomed the decision by the coalition Government to suspend Home Information Packs (HIPs) and save vendors several hundred pounds when they put their properties on sale.

The HIPs, which include title deeds, local authority search information and energy-efficient data, became compulsory in 2007 to provide more information upfront for vendors and pave the way for a faster exchange of contracts.

The move was the centrepiece of Labour's plan to reform the house-buying process - and many HIP inspectors spent thousands of pounds on the training programme to qualify for their new role. Vendors who put homes on sale without a HIP risked fines up to £200 per day.

Now, the HIP project has come juddering to a halt - although vendors still need an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) on their home to meet EU regulations.

Trevor Kent, a Gerrards Cross agent and former president of the National Association of Estate Agents (NAEA), says: "We may be here at last, a property world free of the nonsensical Home Information Pack, a cause for which I have lobbied and toiled for 10 years or so. Rejoice! Rejoice!"

Marc Goldberg, head of sales at Southern England agent Hamptons International, says: "We expect the suspension of HIPs to result in a 12% surge in the number of speculative vendors returning to the market, encouraged by the fact that there are no longer any upfront costs associated with testing the water."

At County Homesearch, a home-hunting agency which works on behalf of buyers, chairman Jonathan Haward says: "In our experience, very few clients for whom we buy houses ever asked to see a pack."

"The majority of our clients who tend to be buying prime property would, on our advice, always order their own survey, carried out by a chartered surveyor. The HIP told you very little that wasn't included in the information gathered by your solicitor."

Your dream property in Thorncombe

THIS beautiful three bedroom cottage situated in the lovely West Dorset village of Thorncombe is the type of property that dreams are made of but rarely come onto the open market.

The accommodation is spacious and bright (unusual for a cottage) and comprises of three double bedrooms, large bathroom, walk-in linen/airing cupboard, large sitting/dining room with wood burning stove, large kitchen/breakfast room, utility/larder and ground floor cloakroom.

Outside is a former double garage now converted to home office with conservatory attached. To the rear is an attractive garden which continues to the side and front and there are pretty countryside views all around. The cottage was built in 1848 and extended in recent years to offer surprisingly bright and spacious accommodation.

It is attractively presented in very good decorative order with replacement uPVC double glazed windows (still under guarantee). There are two forms of heating: oil fired Rayburn and a new Trianco electric high efficiency boiler, which is mainly used mid season after the Rayburn boiler has been switched off for the summer.

Thorncombe Village lies in the far western corner of Dorset close to the borders with Somerset and Devon. The nearest towns are Chard (5 miles), Crewkerne (6 miles) and Axminster (8 miles) and the seaside town of Lyme Regis is just 10 miles to the south. The area has been designated as one of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the village itself has a very strong community with many local clubs on offer. The village facilities include shop and post office, Church and Chapel, Primary School in the Woodroffe pyramid and very active village hall.

To find out more, please visit www.thorncombe.com. There are plenty of walks available from the doorstep and the famous Forde Abbey and gardens is just a mile down the road. Please call Gordon & Rumsby to find out more or book a viewing on 01297 553768 or 01460 30888.

Selling your property is easy. Just advertise it online and wait for the buyers to flock to your door!!

Sadly, too many estate agents rely on this approach, which inevitably results in disappointment. Indeed, in some respects finding the buyer is the easy bit. But, when you think about it, there is far more to moving than simply finding a buyer.

At Fortnam Smith & Banwell, we believe in helping you move, and this means going far beyond the service offered by most estate agents.

We won't simply rush in, measure up, stick pictures of your property in our window and hope for the best. We will take the time and trouble to understand all aspects of your situation and we will work with you to achieve your goal. This may well be the highest price possible, the fastest sale, the most discreet sale, the "right" person for your home, or you may simply want to dip your toe in the water and test the market.

Additionally, as we are independent of any corporate influence, we are not here to sell you products such as mortgages, conveyancing or utility products, we are prepared to invest as much time as you require from us.

Why not call us on 01297 23939 and arrange an informal chat. You'll find we take the time to listen.

Shortage of houses to let causing rents to rise

ANDREW Luxton MRICS FARLA, Partner in charge of Stags Residential Lettings reports on the recent RICS quarterly letting survey which confirms that rents are beginning to rise throughout the South West.

With tenant demand remaining positive, coupled with a lack of properties available to rent coming on to the market has resulted in rents starting to edge upwards. This is reversing the declines seen during 2008 and 2009 and should encourage investors to return to the Buy to Let market.

The lack of rental property coming on to the market is partly due to a lack of confidence in Buy To Let investment, difficulty in obtaining Buy To Let mortgages, and landlords deciding to sell when properties become vacant rather than reletting. In addition, there are very few properties from "accidental landlords" who have been unable to sell and are looking at letting as an alternative. Also average tenancy length is increasing as tenants remain in rented property for longer. All these factors are fueling the shortage and is looking unlikely to change in the short term.

If you would like to give consideration to the letting of your property and ensure it is marketed properly then contact your local Stags residential lettings office to arrange a free no obligation rental appraisal on 01404 42553.

Warley Male Voice Choir return to Seaton

CONCERT-GOERS enjoyed a real treat two years ago when the Choir was last in Seaton. The Choir are back again on Thursday, June 3rd for one night only.

The choir was formed in Smethwick in 1943 by a group of air raid wardens who wanted to continue friendships made during the war. From that small beginning the choir has grown to become known and respected throughout the Midlands.

Now led by a young team of enthusiastic musicians, the choir has introduced a more dynamic and modern approach to its music. The concert will also feature musical interludes by Ralph Waggett (organ) and Anne Davies (piano).

Through its concerts the choir is able to support worthy causes, with the money raised from the concert in Seaton going equally between Seaton Hospital League of Friends and church funds.

The concert is at Seaton Methodist Church, Scalwell Lane, Seaton and starts at 7pm. Tickets are £6 and include refreshments. Tickets are available from Seaton Hospital League of Friends Charity Shop in Fore Street; League of Friends shop within Seaton Hospital and from Ian and Margaret Cole on 01297 624321.

Battery and power: Atomik 500 amongst Salon Privé supercar debuts

THE UK debut of the all-electric Atomik 500 will take place at Salon Privé (21 – 23 July 2010), a ground-breaking new vehicle that promises supercar performance, with city-car size.

Paris-based maker, Atomik Cars, will bring two Atomik 500s to Salon Privé, showing potential customers a tantalising combination of exclusivity and zero-emission performance. Launched just last month, the Atomik 500 claims 0-100km/h in under five seconds and a range of up to 200km, its advanced battery technology clothed in the recognisable shape of a city-car.

"Atomik Cars offer a preview of tomorrow's technology, in cars you can buy and use today. Our cars offer avant-garde design, ambition and technological skill and Salon Privé gives us the perfect platform to reach customers looking for just that exclusivity," said Jerome Griffart of Atomik Cars.

The startling new vehicle is a perfect example of the fascinating collection of independent sports cars that are presented at Salon Privé each year, their makers acutely aware that the event delivers a an audience of genuine customers, at a fraction of the resources required for a mainstream auto show.

Also expected to return to this year's event will be German marque, Veritas, which is expected to unveil a brand new model, following the success of its RSIII Spyder at last year's event.

Said Salon Privé co-founder, David Bagley: "Our philosophy has always been that Salon Privé should be a showcase for the exotic, unusual and exclusive supercars, alongside their more recognisable contemporaries. With Atomik and Veritas this year, we are continuing that proud tradition."

Salon Privé brings together a social and motoring occasion, on the famous lawns of London's Hurlingham Club, offering Europe's largest single display of luxury cars, supercars and some of the finest classic cars, in the stylish surroundings of a British Summer Season event.

Further exhibitors will be revealed closer to the event date.

For more information and tickets, visit www.salonprivelondon.com call + 44 (0) 808 100 2205.

Nissan announces prices for new Juke Crossover

Sector-defining innovation is no longer priceless... Nissan has today announced the prices of its ground-breaking compact crossover model, the Juke. Priced to put another Nissan in the UK's best sellers list, the Juke will be available from a supermini-rivalling £12,795 on the road.

Shunning conventional design in favour of more creative thinking, the Juke will shake up the small car sector with a line-up that's set to appeal to a broad spread of drivers. At the top of the range sits a thrilling 190PS turbocharged model available from only £15,695, extending the Juke's unique appeal as a compact SUV with the genes of a sports car.

Offering both innovative design and great value in a British-built package, the Juke is available with a choice of three engines. The range kicks off with a frugal 117PS 1.6-litre petrol engine, backed up by a fuel-sipping 110PS 1.5-litre dCi diesel.

The ultimate Juke comes equipped with a new 190PS 1.6-litre direct injection turbo petrol engine in both two and four-wheel drive. The £19,995 all-wheel-drive range-topper is mated to Nissan's XTRONIC CVT transmission, with six-speed manual mode and adds lateral torque-vectoring - a first in the small car segment and a technology that has, until now, only been found on top-of-the-range, premium vehicles.

Innovation is central to every part of the Juke's design. Inside, another world first for the small car segment is Nissan Dynamic Control System. A central command and display module like no other, it allows the driver to alter dynamic drive settings as well as easily control functions such as climate control. What's more, the system adopts different displays, colours and functions depending on the mode selected by the driver.

Juke will officially go on sale in late September with order books opening next month [June]. The range will consist of three core specification levels already familiar to Nissan drivers: Visia, Acenta and Tekna. The entry-level Visia will be available from £12,795 and come equipped with 16-inch alloy wheels, ESP, six airbags, sports seats and air conditioning, while also offering the practicality of the Juke's funky five-door shape.

Acenta spec is available from £13,795, growing the standard equipment list to include 17-inch alloys, climate control, Bluetooth with USB connectivity and the Nissan Dynamic Control System.

Two option packs have been developed to allow buyers of Acenta grade versions to tailor their perfect Juke. The £300 Sport Pack will be the obvious choice for anyone wanting to capitalise on the Juke's athletic image. Including 17-inch Sport alloys, rear privacy glass and premium seat fabric, it emphasises the Juke's bold design. If luxury is more your thing, then the £900 Premium Pack brings Nissan Connect - the acclaimed satellite navigation and audio system - a reversing camera and six speakers, combined with the Sport Pack's extras.

However, the ultimate Juke will always wear a Tekna badge. Available from £15,795, the range-topping specification includes leather upholstery, Nissan Connect, a reversing camera, Intelligent Key with engine start button and much more.

Nissan's UK MD, Paul Willcox comments: "For many years buyers in this sector have had a pretty conservative range to choose from. Now we have Juke crossover which offers something innovative and exciting for the same price as a bland five-door hatchback. We firmly believe the Juke is going to be another huge success for Nissan and our Sunderland plant."

Like its big brother Qashqai, two-wheel drive versions of the Juke will be built at Nissan's award winning Sunderland Plant, giving a further boost to the UK's manufacturing industry. The range-topping all-wheel drive model will be produced at Nissan's factory in Opama, Japan.

RUNNING NEWS AND RESULTS

Mixed fortunes for Honiton runners in Edinburgh Marathon

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

HEATHER Foundling-Hawker, John Burgess and Simon Hall took part in the Edinburgh Marathon last weekend with mixed results.

Edinburgh is a very unusual route, in that it is a city centre start, but then goes past the finish at Musselburgh Racecourse which is eight miles out of the city, and then does a loop for the remaining 18 miles, with a lot of those 18 a double back on the same road.

This means that runners can catch a glimpse of those ahead or further behind them at several points and Simon and Heather managed to exchange words of encouragement to each other on such an occasion giving them a brief lift of energy and pace.

With ridiculously barmy conditions of up to 25c/77F, with virtually no wind and on a course devoid of any shelter most runners suffered and Simon and John were no exception.

John felt he was not doing too badly until 22 miles at which point a knee problem forced him to walk for two miles. He eventually managed to complete the race in just under 4 hours 30.

Simon decided to forget finishing within a certain time and adopted a walk/run strategy. His 4 hours 54 minutes was disappointing but in the end he was just pleased to finish.

John and Simon's problems were not over when they crossed the line as Simon had a mad dash to catch his plane and John had to get back to Edinburgh to the start. It took him several hours to find public transport that could accommodate him as it was so busy with everyone else who had got in first. It must have crossed his mind that he could have run back faster.

Heather predictably finished well ahead of John and Simon and was 6th in class in 3:12 with an overall finish position of 254 and 17th female. There were about 9460 runners.

Steve and Judy Davey decided to take in a race when they visited Kent for the weekend. They were attracted by the Beast in the East in Swanley.

The course starts and finishes at Canada Heights which is the venue of the local motocross circuit.

The race itself is billed as tough and very hilly which is not surprising as the first and last 1.8k consists of the motocross track itself which, although abnormally dry, contained seemingly vertical ups and downs.

The middle part of the course took the runners into fields and woodland which would have been welcome relief but runners could only focus on the thought that they had to tackle that track once more.

They were also faced with randomly placed netting which involved getting on hands and knees at one stage. Steve was very happy to finish 54th in a time of 52:07 with Judy not far behind; 68th in 53:27. Judy managed to finish 2nd lady overall and won a suitcase for her efforts.

They both found the race completely energy sapping which was partly due to the hot conditions. There were 349 runners.

UNUSUALLY Harry Moore was the only AVR in action last week and despite his troublesome hernia he ran the Crewkerne 3 mile road race in 38:27.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack Ladies' Section

ON Monday Axe Cliff Ladies travelled to Cheddington in glorious sunshine to play a friendly.

Unfortunately they lost 3 x 1 the winning pairing being Glenda Board and Chris Drew. Wednesday the first round of the Axe Cliff Cup, The Rabbit Trophy and the EWGA Medal took place once again in glorious weather, resulting in some good results.

Winner of the Rabbit Trophy was Chris Drew (32) with a nett 73. The EWGA Medal was won by Liz Wheeldon (24) with a nett 70 beating Glenda Board (17) also with a nett 70.

Main Club.

THE Main Club competed this Sunday for the Haven Cup which is a two man Texas Scramble.

First with a nett 62.6 were L. Snell & P. Hellier. Second with a nett 64 were C. Griffin & R. Nichols and third were P. Clode & C. Hellier with a nett 66.2.

Seniors' Section.

ON Friday the Seniors played the annual foursomes for the Brian Abbot Shield.

In a closely contested game one of last years winning duo, Alan Vincent, this year partnered with John Pugh scored 37 points and on countback won the Shield from Geoff Hughes and Rod Powell who had to settle for second place. In third spot, one point behind with 36 points were Geoff Hubbard and Gerry Turner.

In a recent Seniors 2 ball better ball Stableford at Lyme Regis in a field of 80 pairings, Rob Grove and Iain Bain scored 39 points and on countback won 5th prize which landed each a Mizuno sports holdall.

HONITON with Andy Wagner Hellier - Steele Perkins Trophies

THE competitions this week were the first rounds of the Hellier and Steele Perkins Trophies.

Run as bogey competitions, we were playing for two divisional cups, the Hellier Trophy for Division One and the Steele Perkins Trophy for Division Two.

Bogey competitions are one of the most difficult formats as you are matching your handicap against the course. Finish a hole with a net par and you score a zero, a birdie or better will get you a plus but anything worse than a par and you get a minus score and when putting for par it becomes an all or nothing game. A miss is as good as a mile.

There is no chance of making up for a bad hole with an exceedingly good hole as the game is played on a hole-by-hole basis. Win, lose or draw.

The game played in this fashion takes on a whole new mind set. After the game the first round pace setters (remembering this is a 36 hole competition) were in Division 1 M. Gillard and J

Fleetwood on plus 2 with J Gillingham handily placed on plus 1. Division 2 had good friends and local panto stars M Pipe and P Wall tied on plus 1 with N Black on a tidy level in third.

Both games are still very tight with nobody setting a flying pace.

Tuesday Mixed

THIS was a drawn for partners week when members play for the Goblets. The interest is the week previous when the draw takes place, overseen by the Tuesday Mixed Organiser Geoff Banks.

The format is Greensomes Stableford and this week with a good field the winners with 38pts on c/b were Gerda Brown and Brian Hoepelman.

Second place just losing out on c/b were Jan Dickinson and Roger Pincombe. 3rd place with 37pts were June Hodge and Bill Eaton.

Ladies Section

LAST week's Stableford was played in conjunction with the Grannies Cup.

The winner of the Silver Division with 34pts was June Hodge. 2nd was Henrietta Bradshaw - 33pts.. In Bronze 1 the winner was Carole Cole with 39pts. 2nd - Jenny Raison with 38pts.

In Bronze 2 the winner was Susan Hyde with 38pts on c/b from 2nd place - Betty Weedon. 3rd - Linda Blundell with 37pts. This week the Express & Echo competition was played.

The winners for the second year running was the steady and established pairing of Chris Pearce and June Hodge with 38pts. Just one point behind were Jackie Seager and Henrietta Bradshaw with 37pts.

Both pairs now go forward to play at The Exeter Golf & Country Club in September.

Seniors Section

WITH the dust settled on last weeks Open it was back to the bread and butter handicap qualifier this week with a Medal competition.

It was 12 handicapper John Gillingham who demonstrated the value of consistency with 17 of the holes played in five strokes or less giving him a clear win in Division One with a net score of 66.

This also gave him the tankard as overall winner and he must now try to repeat the feat with a new handicap of 11.

Second was the ever present Bill Spice with 68, with John Fleetwood 69, Bob Canterbury 70 and John Lamb 70 the other prize winners.

In Division Two it required a count back to separate the places with Dave Morgan just topping Malcolm Matthews both with 68. Norman Ede pipped David Ive to take third both with 69 and Mike Peskin took the last prize position on countback from Peter Goodwin both with 70.

Hole in one

JUST as a coda to last week's excitement I forgot to mention that Paul Hill scored a hole in one on the par 3 second during the Charity Open.

Admittedly, he got twice the balls he would have received for getting a two but holing an ace on a day when we had one of our fullest club houses for many a week may not have been the brightest of ideas considering the tradition of buying the players a celebratory drink. But that's exactly what Paul did, leaving his card behind the bar for all the participants to toast his health with their tipple of choice.

In a similar vein Geoff Fitness brought it to my attention that he'd scored his 7th hole in one whilst playing a friendly with Bob Bilyard and Mike Kent.

On this occasion though the clubhouse was empty and the fact went unrecorded except by comparison with Paul's effort and generosity. Such is golf.

LYME REGIS LADIES

with Ellie Lanford

Club Championship: May 27th
AFTER a really chilly start the 36 hole club championship got underway. It wasn't long before the sun came out and things began to hot up with the competition being keenly contested.

Sophie Keech led the way at the halfway point after scoring four birdies in the morning and in the afternoon had three more birdies finishing with a gross score of 156. Lesley Jellyman won the Wellings Salver for the best nett score with 144. Eva Sewell won the Morning Cup played over 18 holes, with 72 nett, and the Scotts Cup for the most improved player was Hanna Jacobsen who improved by 9 shots over her morning round. At the end of day, the Ladies Captain Jane Dixon made the presentation.

Results: Turner Denham Bowl: 1 Sophie Keech 156 gross; 2 Jane Southcombe 168 gross. Wellings Salver: 1 Lesley Jellyman 144 nett; Sophie Keech 146 nett. Morning Cup: 1 Eva Sewell 72 nett; 2 Sophie Keech 73 nett ocb. Scotts Cup Hanna Jacobsen.

There were handicap reductions for Lesley Jellyman 23 to 22, Eva Sewell 27 to 26 and Pat Jenkins 35 to 34.

Lyme Regis were knocked out of the Humphreys Bowl away to Came Down 2/1. Flicity Poole was the only winner for Lyme, she was down for most of the round, then after sinking a long putt on the 14th found renewed confidence and won the 15th to make it all square. She finished one up after winning the 18th.

MATCH REPORTS

Barnstaple 2nds v Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nds

STILL struggling to put out a full strength side Uplyme won the toss and opted to bowl first.

It proved to be a long day in the field with out any real penetrating bowling. Harvey Brimicombe, playing his first game of the season, was the pick of the bowlers although his figures do not depict how close he was to taking two or three wickets. Harvey also shone in the field taking three excellent catches.

Chasing 238 was always going to be difficult but young Joe Bailey and Eddie Clarke got Uplyme off to a steady start and at 112 for 2 with Dave Norman and Mark Brimicombe going well it looked as if Uplyme might get close to the Barnstable total but when Norman was unbelievably caught via a rebound off the keeper and Brimicombe mishit a hook shot to be well caught at fine leg the Uplyme innings unraveled.

Some poor shot selection and a questionable LBW decision saw the lower order collapse.

Honiton 1st XI v Newton St Cyres 1st XI

HONITON won the toss on a green looking wicket. Adam Holmes opened the bowling but failed to take a wicket in his six over spell while at the other end Phil Tansley regularly took wickets and at one point was 5-9.

Kevin Kelly was introduced to the attack and was also soon amongst the wickets.

Newton St Cyres looked to score runs from any lose ball including one huge six which sailed over the tennis court. Kelly took the final wicket in the 21st over, with the score on 74.

Kelley finished with 3-24 and Tansley a superb 7-24 to continue his impressive bowling form this season.

Honiton openers Bradley Groves (24no) and George Meadows with an impressive 46 not out saw Honiton reach the total without loss displaying a range of classy shots and aggressive batting on a tricky track.

Captain Neil Pulman was a happier man after the disappointing draw against Kenn last week he said: "I'm pleased how the team reacted after last week's fielding display. It really shows that catches win matches!"

Honiton 2nds v Kilmington 2nds

KILMINGTON'S arrival at Ottery Moor Lane was greeted with traditional bank holiday leaden skies, howling winds, persistent rain and only occasional relief offered by heavy drizzle. Both teams, along with umpire Dave Kelly were, however, unperturbed as Honiton inserted Kilmington on a pitch offering consistent bounce and some lateral movement.

Craig Lapping, bowling the slope, struck in the first over to have Holland snapped up at backward point by Travers. Stenning was trapped leg before to make it 23-2 as Lapping beat the inside edge in the 9th over and Honiton began to exert their grip. The third wicket added 31 in 12 overs before Brinsford yorkeed the appropriately named Sloman for 9, bringing the big hitting Morris to the crease.

Watts looked assured, despite two escapes from the hooks hands of the normally safe-as-houses Kelly, so it was something of a shock when he was undone by Nick Hartnoll's slower bouncer just four short of a half century.

Morris applied the long handle, producing one enormous lawnmower shed-bound six in his 36 before Hartnoll struck again to have him caught behind by Strawbridge. Canniford cleaned up the dangerous Seward for 0 before presenting keeper Strawbridge with the second of his three catches to see off Cook.

The innings all but ground to a halt as 17 runs were added in the final 12 overs and while Honiton were unable to break up the last wicket pair of Smith and Lavender, the total of 127-9 seemed around 40 runs short of a really testing target. All the bowlers kept things tidy, while Hartnoll's 4-23 represented an impressive return for the venerable warhorse.

And so it proved, as the Honiton reply made rapid progress in the unrelenting drizzle. Pete Beighton expertly manoeuvred the ball into the gaps, while opening partner Tom Strawbridge preferred his usual muscular approach, sending the scoreboard spinning with a multitude of powerful shots.

As the Kilmington bowlers struggled to find an answer to Honiton's aggression, the pair racked up 93 for the first wicket. Beighton was the first to depart, caught at slip, for a well crafted 31 which featured four fours, including one sumptuous cover drive worthy of the great David Steele.

Canniford departed for a whimsical two before Strawbridge's swashbuckling innings of 78 (13 fours) was curtailed by Burgess. At 115-3 and with the task all but completed, skipper Andrew Lapping and Tom Travers made no mistake in guiding the side home by 7 wickets inside 22 overs, with Honiton taking 19 points for another good win.

Both teams did well to retain their habitual good humour on such a foul day, as did umpire Kelly who, one hopes, managed to find a suitably hot bath.

Honiton U14 v Cullompton

HONITON'S Ryan Dunn ran the show as their U14s won a last ball thriller vs Cullompton.

Honiton won the toss and asked the hosts to bat first. Some steady batting and some loose bowling allowed Cullompton to make a steady start and reach 56 for 3 with early runs from M Rawlis (11) and R Green (12).

J Grandford hit a quick 15 and was looking to punish the visitors attack, but having already run out Green, Dunn was brought into the attack and clean bowled Grandford just as he was accelerating, he then took another as were reduced to 58 for 5 and Honiton look to turn the game in their favour.

M Bristow (30) provided some big hitting in the closing overs to help the home side to 99 for 8 after their 20 overs. Dunn finished with 2 for 18 from his 4 overs and was the pick of the visiting bowlers.

In reply Honiton found themselves in all sorts of problems and at one stage their score was 32 for 7 as M Bristow 3 for 11 and R Nicholls 2 for 12 ripped Honiton's top order apart with only Ollie Fuller (16) able to offer any resistance.

With a heavy defeat looking on the cards Ryan Dunn and Harry Wright looked to salvage some pride from the game and began to get the board moving with some intelligent running a shot play.

The pressure began to turn towards the home side as Dunn and Wright started to move the score within winning distance but when Wright departed for a well played 24 the home side began again to sense victory, the even with Honiton on 90 for 8, Max Mason (8) joined Dunn for the last 7 balls and with 2 needed from the very last ball Mason cleared the in field for the batsmen to run the 2 runs required and give Honiton a win form what looked like certain defeat.

Man of the Match Ryan Dunn finished unbeaten on 33 and was singled out by his coach as the main reason for the victory as he lead the way in the field from the off and put in a faultless display

Honiton U14 v Budleigh Salterton

TWENTY FOUR hours after the nail biter with Cullompton, Honiton's U14's had to do it all again vs Budleigh.

Honiton again won the toss and asked their hosts to have a bat and despite losing an early wicket Budleigh got off to a flyer as they got 54 for 1 with eight overs gone and a score in excess off 120 was looking on the cards, however Honiton Stuart Thompson had other plans and took a wicket in each of his first 3 three overs on his way to figures of 3 for 11 from his 4 overs.

This left Budleigh on 73 for 4 after 13, Their early runs coming from Harry Parkin 22 Joe Marley 17, Honiton kept things tight in the remaining overs and picked up regular wickets along the way, S Conway (26) top scored for the home side punishing anything short from the visitors to the nearest boundary, Tom Cligg (2 for 22) and Ryan Dunn (2 for 3) supported Thompson as the home side finished well short of what they had hoped for on 101 for 8.

This total looked more than enough after the first over as Budleigh reduced Honiton to 0 for 2 then 20 for 3, with the visiting sides reply looking shaky Ben Broom (31) and Ollie Fuller turned things around and put on 60 for the 4th wicket and the game looked theirs for the taking.

However the home weren't done just yet and the retirement of fuller on 40 allowed Budleigh to put pressure on Honiton's lower order and four run outs had them thinking the game was their's once again.

Honiton scratched their way to 97 with last over to bowl, they picked up 2 from the first ball but a run out in the second ball meant it was still any body's game, the wicket brought Fuller back to the crease though but hit the second ball he faced over the infield to give what looked like Honiton the win only for the 2 they ran to be called one short and the advancing Honiton players had to retreat back to the pavilion and wait to see what other twists and turns the game would throw up, But Ollie completed the job as he repeated the same shot to allow Honiton the win with one ball to spare to round off an unbelievable 48 for the youngsters and their coach, who now has even less hair than he did before!

FOOTBALL RESULTS, REPORTS AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

BUDLEIGH Salterton won the Morrison Bell cup on Saturday in the last local soccer match in East Devon when they beat Clyst Valley 2-0 at Ottery St Marys Washbrook Meadows.

A goal in either half from Sam Bird and Khalid Badani clinched the robins third win in the competition in the last four years. Clyst played well but hardly managed a shot at goal and never looked like getting the better of the Peninsular League team whose skipper James Turner and fellow defender Liam Ellis were the pick of the side. Mark Hill was the choice as for Clyst as their best player.

Colyton retained their hold on the Grandisdon cup when they beat Tipton St John 3-0 on Friday night. Colyton dominated the final at Ottery from the fifth minute when they opened the scoring through Adam Wakely and then a brilliant goal started and finished by Nick Pritchard made it 2-0. Callum Somers completed the scoring in the second-half as Tipton who failed to turn up on the night according to manager Dave Strawbridge never looked like getting into the match.

Beer Albion Res won the Goleworthy cup 4-2 against Clyst Valley Res despite going one down. Jason Mingo had given Valley the lead, but Jamie Hewitt and Callum Gribble then scored to give Beer a 2-1 interval advantage.

It was 2-2 within seconds of the restart with Kyle Davey equalising, but the Albion's Rob Adkin then netted a controversial third goal off the crossbar, shades of Geoff Hurst in the 66 world cup final. Clyst were not happy about the decision but Adkin then made sure of the trophy when he thumped in the fourth goal, and his second.

Valley keeper Andy Braddick was the personality of the final with some deft trickery when playing his way out of trouble.

Colyton only reached the final just three days earlier when they scored three times in the last ten minutes to beat Kentisbeare 4-1. Callum Somers with a hat-trick and Adam Wakely were the scorers. The Kents goal came from Josh Dryhurst.

◆ Jim Pearcey the Devon FA Press correspondent and our Sunday Independent reporter on County matches was delighted to receive from the Devon & Exeter League press officer this week some goal scoring records from 30 years ago when Jim was a member of the Escot Rovers football Club.

Jim retired as a player ten years earlier, but played ten minutes as substitute in two matches for Escot in 1979 and 1980 and scored on both occasions, and of course they were both recorded on the sheets he received.

Jim's colleagues on the County FA and local cups committees have not yet heard the last of that, and Jim can even remember the exact details of the goals and who was refereeing on the day.

◆ Tottenham Hotspur legend and Exeter City director of football Steve Perryman presented the Devon & Exeter League winners and runners-up with their trophies and medals at their annual presentation night held at the Padbrook Golf and Country Club in Cullompton.

Perryman had earlier in the day been troubled by injury, whilst travelling from abroad, and was in some pain, but did not let the league down for which they were immensely grateful.

Bernard Leach, of the Devon County FA, and his wife were also guests of the league.

A special award was made to retiring fixtures secretary Pat Leisk, standing down after 27 years, and his wife Alison. The announcement of Merv Joslin as Leisk's successor was also made.

Joslin is currently the league's grounds inspection officer and the secretary of the Axmouth United club.

Seven teams have applied to join the league next season including former Peninsular League side Clyst Rovers, and former South Devon League team Chagford along with their second team.

Both Clyst and Chagford have been slotted into Division One, which will be a 16-strong division and that means an earlier start to the new campaign, probably from mid-August.

Newly-formed Exeter teams Dolphin and Whipton & Pinhoe have also applied as have Chulmleigh from North Devon, with Topsham Town asking for inclusion of a fourth team.

All seven teams should be formally accepted at the league's Annual General Meeting on Thursday at the America Hall in Pinhoe.

Rockbeare Rangers, Exmouth Amateurs third team and Dawlish Town's third team (the Division Seven champions) have withdrawn from the league.

Daisy Hutchings Cup Final Thursday, May 27th at Perry Street FC

Lyme Regis Reserves 2

West & Middle Chinnock 3

LYME Regis Reserves led twice in a competitive final at Perry Street but ultimately the Daisy Hutchings cup deservedly ended in the hands of West & Middle Chinnock for the first time writes Howard Larcombe.

The Chinnocks had the first opportunity but Jedd Whittington saved down low to his right to deny Damian Hart.

Lyme went close soon after when Danny Thirlwell saw his close range effort blocked on the line. A minute later Fred Thomson missed a golden chance when he delayed too long in the penalty area allowing Chinnocks' keeper Aaron Langdon to save well. But Thomson made amends soon after when he smashed the ball home into the roof of the net for his 11th goal of the season following good work from Darren Poole and Jason Hawker. And Thomson nearly added a second a minute later when he rose well but headed Thirlwell's pinpoint free-kick narrowly wide.

The Chinnocks responded and top-scorer Ian Masters, playing in an unfamiliar midfield role, had a crisp low drive well saved by Whittington.

But two minutes into the first-half injury time the scores were leveled when Mark Cawley netted with a classy low left foot drive.

In an open second-half Cawley fired wide within 30 seconds of the restart whilst Thomson shot over on his weaker left side on the hour mark.

Lyme edged back ahead when full-back Luke Street surged forward before lashing home from the edge of the area in the 66th minute.

Striker Jason Hawker, who had a fine game leading the line, almost made the game safe when his header from an Ally Rattenbury corner was headed off the line.

But the South Somerset side weren't finished and Damon Hallett produced a superb equaliser 10 minutes from time when he cleverly lifted the ball over a defender before lashing the ball home. And, fittingly the winner came from Chinnocks' player-manager Nick Eckland who scored from close range in the 88th minute – but puzzlingly wasn't dismissed by referee Andy Dyke for removing his shirt in celebration having previously been yellow carded.

Lyme can have few complaints in the result but can take comfort from a performance that keep them firmly in the game for long periods.

Top performer for the Seaside was goalkeeper Jedd Whittington whose handling was impeccable. Lyme Regis Reserves team: Jedd Whittington, Stuart King (captain), Tim Edwards, Rob Larcombe (Ally Rattenbury 74), Luke Street, Luke Clifton, Darren Poole, Danny Thirlwell, Fred Thomson, Aaron Cleal, Jason Hawker (Neal Baker 81). Unused subs: Wallace Blackmore, Ryan Fifer, Gerard Hitchcock

AVP'S PASS THE TEST

SIX members of Axe Valley Pedallers have just passed their Level 2 Mountain Bike Leader/Instructor qualification at the mountain bike academy Fully Sussed.

Fully Sussed is run by the highly skilled husband and wife team of Maddie and Jay Horton had impressive credentials with Maddie currently holding the position of top rider in Mountain Bike Marathon riding in England and Jay hot on her heels. Incidentally, Jay finished 5th in the Grizzly a few years ago, so you can see how fit these two are.

An intensive course covered a wide syllabus which included group management, navigation, route planning, coaching techniques, risk assessment and an in depth development of riding skills.

The riders had to prove that they could look after a group in a rocky and demanding terrain like Dartmoor, where the course was run and show excellent confident riding skills at the same time.

The riding skills were often demonstrated and developed during 'fun sessions', with cycle limbo and 'track standing' (balancing on the bike without moving) competitions taking place. Other skills were worked on the trail where speed jumps, hopping (on the bike), lifting wheels and descending or mounting steps required a real focus and nerve.

Congratulations go to Ben Dowell, David Holmes, Glenn Morgan, James Cope, Sebastian Cope and Alistair Cope of Axe Valley Pedallers. Axe Valley Pedallers would like to encourage anyone interested in developing their Mountain Bike skills or looking to go out and tackle our local bridleways, to contact them by visiting their website at www.axevalleypedallers.org.

The club intends to develop the MTB section and plan more visits to challenging areas, like the Quantocks, Snowdonia and the Brecon Beacons.

◆ CLUED UP: Six members of the Axe Valley Pedallers have passed their level 2 Mountain bike leader/instructor qualifications.

THE men's team drew a blank in their County Trophy match with Seaton losing by 66-96, with no rink registering a win.

However, the fortunes of the men's over 60s A team received a boost with a much needed win away at Hemynock by 41-26, securing six valuable points. The winning rink was J. Livings, M. Chipperfield and A. Williams 27-6. Unfortunately, the B team's undefeated run came to an end at Cullompton losing by 26-32, the winning rink was F. Jones, R. Clarke and L. Ley 14-8.

In the County Ladies 2 wood competition Lyn Eveleigh secured a place in the County finals by winning the section three competition against Chris Macaulay, well done Lyn. Not to be outdone, her husband Martyn Eveleigh also won the section three men's four wood final defeating John Dance by 21-17.

In the quarter finals of the men's pairs competition, Ian Veitch and Eddie Cox lost a thrilling encounter with the Madeira father and son team of Tony and Craig Ralph by 17-18 on the 22nd end, hard luck!

Over the weekend the Club held its two wood Men's and Ladies knockout competition. In the Ladies final Christine Granger won a nail biting match with Lyn Eveleigh, the scores were level after 20 ends, but Christine trailed the jack with her last wood to win by 13-12. An equally exciting contest in the men's final saw Richard North beating Tony Kury by 13-10.

HONITON with Tony Broughton

THE week started well with a 79-58 win for the Ladies at Seaton. Our highest winning rink by 21-10 was Pat Trembeth, Lynda Gadd, Berry Maynard and Rita Barwick, this year's Ladies Captain.

In a mixed friendly at home against Crewkerne the tables were turned losing on three out of four rinks by 65-75. Top rink again was Rita Barwick, this time aided by Jenny Wilde, Pat Trembeth, again, and Chris Maynard.

The match against the Welsh Tourist side, Ystrad Myach, was three rinks won three lost with a 116-111 overall win. Our top rink was David Tooley, Rosemary Hiron, Ken Clarke and Gordon Tillier at 29-14.

A six rink home match against the Nomads resulted in a defeat by 22 shots again three winning and three losing rinks. Our top rink was Ann Newman, Carole Pidgeon, Maureen Parsons and Tony Tooley with 23-9.

Budleigh Salterton took the honours on Saturday winning four out of six Triples by a total 17 shots. We had one rink draw and one win at 23-10. This was Geoff Holding, Tony Trembeth and Rita Barwick.

Four triples went away to Donyatt on Sunday but could not hold their own with a resulting loss of 67-79. David Tooley, Terry Watson and Faith Morris did well to take a five on the last end and come out our only winning rink at 19-16.

Friday evening saw the first round of the Grater Pairs, a Minor County Competition, at Seaton. Ron Rowley and Roger Woolland, Seaton, beat Fred Cowey and Dennis Hillyear but Don Russell and Tony Broughton beat Mike Follenfant and Brian Kenning, Seaton. They will now face Ron and Roger next Friday evening.

The men also had a good win in their County Trophy match against Sidmouth. The away pair shared the spoils, one rink lost by five and the other won by five shots. At home one rink won by one shot and the other by two. So a match win of only three shots, very close, but again 14 from 16 points.

Both teams won against Axminster in the first round of the Foxlands Trophy. The away leg by 3 shots but Fred Cowey, Dennis Hillyear, George Selvey and Trevor, tilt your wood, Pipe, had a massive 40-9 victory. Don't cheer too soon, their next round is against Madeira.

The ladies played the second round of the National Top Club competition against Budleigh on Sunday morning. In the Singles, Carole Binmore beat Maggie Dance by 21-5.

In fairness Maggie turned up very tired after playing three singles games the previous day to take her into the last sixteen in the County along with Liz Smerdon of Madeira. The Pairs, Yvonne Rayner and Shirley Hiscocks won 18-14.

The Triples of Rita Barwick, Ann Hillyear and Brenda Harris lost 12-18. The Fours Rosemary Hiron, Dulcie Broughton, Joan Heard and Sue Evans had a win of 25-9. A good win, but as yet we do not know their next round opponents.

The Over 60s C side were away at Belmont. At one point they were 25-0 down on the match but came back to win on one rink 26-10. The other rink lost but this big win gave them overall victory of four shots to get six out of eight points available.

The A side away to Bradninch resulted in a draw, each Club winning one rink so four points each.

Gordon Tillier is doing well in the County Single competition he has already beaten Ray McDonald, Seaton, and Peter Harvey and will now face Terry House, Ottery, for a place in the group semi-final.

I would like to report the progress of the only remaining team, Trevor and Gordon, in the County Pairs but their second round match last Saturday was postponed until this Saturday because a prominent young player could not get there on time. I know learn that this match also has to be re-arranged to suit same young person.

So we now have a ridiculous situation where a second round match will take place after the scheduled finish date for the semi-final.

Honiton's elite in finals

TWO partnerships from Honiton Gym Club's elite have strengthened the Club's growing international reputation, by Qualifying for the final of the Flanders International Acro Cup in Belgium and missing out on the medals by just 0.1 of a mark.

Girls trio Jes Kennaway, Valentine Tutchter and Shaylee Moore finished the competition in fourth place, while girls pair Lauren Davey and Sarah Hodgkinson were fifth in their discipline. But, despite the promising results, the girls felt disappointment at missing out on what could easily have been medals for both groups. These, collectively, are our best results to date in high-class international competition," said high performance coach Helen Naylor. "but the girls were left slightly disheartened when the results were announced, knowing that they could have come away with so much more."

Lauren and Sarah made an outstanding impression on the judges in the qualifying rounds, winning both preliminary rounds and qualifying for the finals in first - a full mark ahead of their nearest rivals. "That's a huge margin in gymnastics scoring" added Helen. "We thought they had the gold medal sealed, but when it came to their final routine they made three uncharacteristic errors."

"By the time they stepped off the floor their heads dropped, as they knew they were out of the medals. "But it was the opposite situation for the trio who didn't start the competition as well as they would have hoped, but did well enough to qualify for the final in eighth position.

"When they made the final, the trio knew they had another chance at showing their best, and were determined to 'wow' the judges" said Helen. And they did just that, pulling out an exceptional performance that moved them up from eighth to joint third. "It was then a tense time, as we checked the various scores and the tie break rules, and saw that the girls were ahead on artistic impression. "Unfortunately, that wasn't enough. "They were 0.1 lower on technical execution, and this meant that they were finally placed in fourth."

While Lauren and Sarah are continuing their acrobatic gymnastics career together and looking to move up from the 11-16 age group to junior level next year, Belgium was the trio's last competition together. Shaylee is now taking a break from the gym to start her first full time job, and Jess and Valentine will be continuing together in a new combination and moving up to junior level next year, where they will be looking to continue their international career.
